NAAC ACCREDITED 'A++' GRADE COLLEGE

2024-25

Press release of Orientation Program for New Academic Session (2024-25)

Hansraj College, University of Delhi successfully conducted its 'Orientation Program, 2024' for the academic session 2024-2025 on August 29, 2024, welcoming a new cohort of students with the auspicious 'Havan' in line with the DAV tradition, followed by a series of insightful presentations and engaging activities. The esteemed principal of Hansraj College, Prof. (Dr) Rama addressed the gathering emphasizing the college's commitment to excellence in education and holistic student development. She also encouraged the students to deeply hold on to Indian tradition, blending it seamlessly with modern lifestyles. The Vice Principal, Prof. Vijay Rani Rajpal warmly welcomed the new students, ensuring them of a homely and supportive environment. She acquainted the students with the college facilities and infrastructure. The program gave the students an insight into the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) and its integration into the Under Graduate Curriculum Framework (UGCF). The students were introduced to the varied extra-curricular societies as well as sports opportunities at Hansraj College. The college councilor emphasized the importance of mental health and the various support systems available to students. The event featured performances by Swaranjali - The Music Society and a classical dance performance showcasing the rich cultural heritage and talent nurtured at Hansraj College. To emphasize the importance of a safe and welcoming environment, Hansraj College conducted an anti-ragging rally led by the NCC and the Anti-Ragging Committee. The orientation program set a positive tone for the new academic year, leaving students motivated as well as excited for the journey ahead.
