The History Society, Department of History invites its alumni to interact with students and share their experiences. These sessions provide students confidence, feeling of togetherness, a sense of the Department's history, and value of generations. The former students provide career guidance to the students to give them a sense of direction to prepare their career. On 15 March 2024, the History Society welcomed two of its distinguished alumni, Sarang Narayan and Neha Choudhary.

Both the alumni had completed their post-graduate and PhD degrees at prestigious foreign institutions. The session was incredibly insightful as they guided the student on shaping our future, addressing doubts, and offering valuable advice on foreign education opportunities. If you're passionate about history and considering higher studies abroad, their talk provided a detailed roadmap to success in these elite institutions.
