Event Description (About 250 Words) The North East Cell of Hansraj College successfully organized its annual fest, Orenda, on 8th April 2024, alongside the college fest. The event served as a vibrant showcase of North-Eastern culture, offering the audience a deeper appreciation of folk traditions from the region. The fest witnessed an overwhelming turnout, with the auditorium packed to full capacity. One of the highlights was the inter-college folk competition, which saw participation from various colleges across Delhi University. This event provided an engaging platform for cultural exchange and learning, as the audience not only enjoyed the performances but also gained valuable insights into the rich and diverse heritage of the North-East. The fest was an exciting, educational experience that left everyone with fond memories
