Description of the event

Conventus 2.0," an inter-branch networking mixer hosted by 180 Degrees Consulting at Hansraj College, exemplified the power of collaboration in consulting. Launched in 2020 with 6 branches and 30 participants, the initiative has since grown to involve 15 branches and 60 participants across Delhi University. The event encouraged cross-branch connections through ice-breakers, such as "Bazingo," and discussions on branch initiatives for social impact. Teams tackled a case study on challenges faced by a dating platform for DU students, with insights from alumni working at top firms like Bain, Deloitte, and ZS Associates. The mixer fostered camaraderie, synergy, and a shared commitment to impactful consulting.
