Event Description

On the account of World AIDS day, a significant Awareness Session was held on December 1, 2023, in Sanjay Basti Timarpur. It turned out to be a crucial initiative commemorating this venerable juncture. The event aimed to dispel myths and taboos surrounding AIDS, particularly in rural areas. Dr. Prakalp Gupta and Dr. Nikhil Patil, both pursuing MD in Community Medicine at AIIMS, New Delhi, served as esteemed speakers.

The doctors addressed misconceptions, encouraged open dialogue, and emphasized the importance of education, breaking stigma, and promoting access to testing and treatment. Notably, the session tackled the issue of drug abuse, recognizing it as a significant factor contributing to the spread of the HIV virus in rural areas.

Overall, the event succeeded in fostering awareness, creating a platform for community engagement, and empowering individuals to protect themselves against AIDS. The collaboration of a dedicated team of 10 volunteers further enriched the impact of this meaningful initiative. The AIDS Awareness Session successfully
