animals. There were more than 100 participants from various colleges as well demonstrating the growing interest and concern for these issues within the North Campus. It was heartening to see people from about 5 to 6 different colleges who come together to support the cause. We were also aimed for signing of mass petition to submit to respective government authority and to organizations to extended our concern.

The impact of the rally extended beyond its immediate attendees as got around more than 150 signatures for the petition and we are aiming for 250 petitions. The World Animal Day rally at North campus was a resounding success, fostering a sense of unity and purpose among every individual . It not only celebrated our love for animals but also encouraged meaningful action towards their well-being. The rally serves as a reminder that we all have a role to play in advocating for and protecting the rights and welfare of animals, not just on this special day but every day
