Name of Convener: Dr. Jnaneswari Malik

On March 5, 2024, Women Development Cell, Hansraj College organized a seminar on legal awareness centered around the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, welcoming students from all institutions within the University of Delhi. The event aimed to underscore the importance of the POSH Act in fostering safer workplaces. The session was conducted by two seasoned professionals, Mr. Rajendra Singh Arora and Adv. Ms. Sheetal Raghuvanshi.

The speakers highlighted the critical need for the enforcement of the POSH Act to prevent and address sexual harassment in the workplace. They engaged in a comprehensive discussion about the various types of sexual harassment, including both verbal and nonverbal offenses such as unwanted advances, inappropriate remarks, and the creation of hostile work environments. A significant part of the discussion also focused on the role of Internal Complaints Committees (ICCs), which conduct unbiased investigations into complaints.

Participants were provided with information on bystander intervention techniques and the importance of open reporting channels to ensure that situations are addressed promptly and effectively. Mr. Arora and Adv. Raghuvanshi stressed the significance of knowledge and training in empowering staff to report misconduct without fear of retaliation. The session also referenced Aditya Narayan Mishra, Chief Executive of CIEL, who highlighted the advantages of POSH training programs in organizations,
