Event Description (About 250 Words) On the 12th of February, 2024, the North East Cell of Hansraj College, in collaboration with the ST/SC Society, orchestrated a compelling event that combined the excitement of a quiz competition with the enriching insights of a speaker session. The focal theme of the day was "The Unsung Heroes of Northeast India," shedding light on the often-overlooked contributions of individuals from the region. The quiz competition witnessed a vibrant display of enthusiasm from the participating students. A total of Rs 3000 was allocated as prize money, acknowledging the outstanding performance of the winners. The first, second, and third place contenders received prize money of Rs 1500, Rs 1000, and Rs 500, respectively, fostering a spirit of healthy competition and recognition. Following the exhilarating quiz competition, the stage was set for a thought-provoking speaker session. Dr. Phirmi Bodo, an esteemed Associate Professor from the Centre for the Study of Social Systems at JNU, graced the event as the speaker. Dr. Bodo delved into the profound role played by the people of the North East during pivotal moments in history, such as the freedom struggle and the Mughal invasion. She illuminated the narratives of influential personalities like Kanaklata Barua and U Kiang Nangbah, offering a comprehensive perspective on their significant contributions. The event unfolded successfully, witnessing active and engaged participation from both the members of the North-East Cell and other students. Dr. Phirmi Bodo's session not only provided valuable historical insights but also served as a platform for
