These activities were meticulously planned and executed, providing participants with a unique platform to foster their creativity and formal expression.

The Essay Writing segment was particularly noteworthy. It provided individuals with an opportunity to articulate their thoughts and perspectives on the changes that have occurred in Diwali traditions and cultural practices from their childhood to the present day. Participants reflected on a myriad of topics, from the evolution of Diwali celebrations within families to broader societal changes that have influenced the festival over the years. The essays highlighted a rich tapestry of personal memories and cultural shifts, showcasing the diverse ways in which Diwali is celebrated across different generations and communities. Meanwhile, the Decor Making competition encouraged participants to showcase their artistic skills by creating vibrant and innovative decorations that captured the festive spirit of Diwali. From intricately designed rangolis to beautifully crafted lanterns and diyas, the competition saw a plethora of creative entries. Participants employed various materials and techniques, reflecting the rich heritage and contemporary trends in Diwali decor.

Both events received overwhelmingly positive feedback.
