Event Description (About 250 Words)

The History Society of the Department of History, Hansraj College organized an on-field visit to the on-going excavation work at the Old Fort, Delhi on 6th June 2023. The Old Fort excavations have already revealed 9-cultural levels and certain major discoveries like the ring well of the Mauryan period, which is an unique of its type, along with a huge hoard of various pottery cultures and architectural remains. Students were guided by the faculty members of the history department in this visit to the excavation site. Additionally, archaeologists from the ASI on the site explain gave students a thorough insight into specifications. Students learnt about the various technicalities of archaeology like mapping and trenching, soil analysis, dating techniques and so on. Students also visited pottery yard and were shown the selected findings of the excavation. Students interacted with former Director-General of ASI and archaeologists Dr. R.S. Bisht, who excavated the famous site of Dholavira.
