Date of the Event: 29th October, 2018

We, at NSS Hansraj, take great pride in sharing with you all the success of the third session of the computer literacy programme held on this Sunday in the Yamuna Khadar Slum area. In the modern era where computers are indispensable to our existence, little do we pay attention to the fact that the inhabitants of slums do not have access to computer systems unlike us. These children usually don't know as to how to deal with these complex systems. To nurture the very roots of our society, our volunteers took a great initiative to spread basic computer skills like MS-Word, Ms- Excel and how to switch on and off a computer system. This is indeed a pride-worthy step towards ensuring that the children could walk shoulder to shoulder with their spirits as well as heads held high.
