The event began with a quiz organised for children on sanitation, general hygiene and computer literacy. Similarly, a parallel quiz was organised for the elders of the locality on general issues and sanitation, it was followed by 'Anatakshari Competition' for elders and top performers were awarded 1 kg of rice and paintings made by our volunteers. The activity was followed by several other activities including - 'Tell a Joke', 'Freeze Dance' and 'Constellation' for kids, the winners of the games were awarded. The day ended with lots of laughter, beaming faces and smiles resonating with our idea of reaching out to all who need love and acceptance this 'Love Week'.
