Asabhya - Stage Play

"Asabhya," a self-written musical play, delves into the intricate web of India's deeply entrenched caste system through a series of tragicomic events. At its heart, the play raises the profound question, "Hamare haato ki rekhaao me jo likha hota hai, kya wahi iss jeevan ki lakeer ban jaata hai, ya iss sabke pare bhi kuch hota hai?"

Set against the vibrant backdrop of folk music and culture, "Asabhya" unfolds the story of Chiddaram, a lower-caste salt seller, who paradoxically advocates for the very caste system that marginalizes him. Chiddaram's firm belief in the societal hierarchy is put to the test when he becomes entangled in a tale of selfish individuals and bonds that transcend the boundaries of family.

Through its tragicomic narrative and engaging characters, the play challenges preconceived notions.
