Event Description (About 250 Words)

A Government School Educational Session held on October 12, 2023, aimed to impart comprehensive information on various aspects and entities associated with social service. The event, drew the participation of 10 individuals.

The session commenced with a group discussion during which students shared their insights on social service. Following this, they were introduced to the concept of 'social service' and its essential role in effecting societal transformation. Furthermore, the importance of engaging in such activities to alleviate apathy in today's youth and nurture empathy was emphasized. A brief description of the Aroh Foundation and its efforts in empowering women and offering support to victims of domestic violence was also discussed.

In conclusion, students were provided with guidelines for volunteering in community service. They departed with a renewed perspective that 'We rise by lifting others'. The Government School Educational Session successfully achieved its objective of providing in-depth insights into various facets of social service.
