"Agni aur Barkha" is like reliving the age old myth even as it's multi-faceted characters, which transcend time, play out its inexorable end.... OF POWER. Parvasu is the eldest son of the great sage Raibhya. For seven long years, he has performed the mahayagya (fire sacrifice) to appease the gods and get rain for the drought ridden land. He has forsake his wife - vishakha, his brother - Arvasu and all worldly pursuits. His exalted position as Chief Preist of the sacrifice creates discord and animosity within his own family, from his father raibhya to his cousin Yavakri.
