Event Description

On the 7th of September, the Mahatma Hansraj Centre for Innovation, Incubation, and Entrepreneurship (MHCIIE), in collaboration with the Entrepreneurial Cell of Hansraj College, organized an insightful podcast session featuring Mr. Surya Kant, Program Director at the Ministry of Electronics & IT (MeitY) Startup Hub. With over 15 years of experience in government, corporate, and social development sectors, Mr. Kant shared his expertise in driving startup growth through innovative policies, strategic partnerships, and mentoring programs.

During the session, Mr. Kant discussed the pivotal role of MeitY in nurturing India's startup ecosystem, emphasizing the ministry's contribution to sectors like AI, cybersecurity, and deep tech. He outlined how MeitY supports startups through various initiatives such as mentorship programs, global collaborations, and schemes like PM-YUVA. Highlighting the importance of emerging technologies, he shed light on how innovations in AI and blockchain will shape India's economic future.

Mr. Kant also shared personal insights about his journey from the corporate sector to his current role in public policy, illustrating how both experiences have shaped his approach to fostering entrepreneurship. He emphasized the significance of collaboration between government bodies, incubators, and private investors in creating a thriving startup ecosystem.
