SOCIO-POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT AFFECTING WOMEN

The Women Development Cell(WDC) of Hansraj College hosted an enlightening session called 'Baatcheet : Exploring socio-political developments affecting women' aimed to address the contemporary socio-political issues that Indian women confront. The purpose of the event was to encourage conversation about how the social and political shifts are affecting Women's rights, roles, and opportunities in modern society.

The conversation was led by speakers from variety of disciplines. They addressed critical issues as gender-based violence, lack of political representation, unequal access to education, and economic inequalities. The panelists emphasized the need for more inclusive and women-centric policies as they talked about the effects of recent legislative reforms and policy changes on women's lives.

The significance of women's active involvement in leadership and governance roles was also discussed during the event. It was underlined that to guarantee gender-sensitive policies, women's opinions are crucial in the decision-making processes. The attendees also considered how socio-political issues are intersectional, emphasizing
