Date of the Event: 29 February 2020

"A lush carpet of pine needles or spongy grass is much more welcoming than a lavish artificial carpet "

Focusing on the same, we take immense pride to enchant that we organized our annual fest MIDORI'20 with much-obliged enthusiasm of sprouting souls and igniting minds. It was organized on February 29th, 2022.

Our innovative program called "Junk ka Jugaad" got an immense response across all protecting fraternities, the main aim of this program was to know about the ways of eradicating junk in our day-to-day life in an innovative way. In that challenge, we gave a brainy 40 seconds challenge to all the participants where they have to give innovative solutions to eradicate the junk by using their sparkling minds. On this environmental competition, we got a huge response with remedies for controlling junk in our daily life. Participants used their tickling minds, made the weirdest guesses, and enjoyed the session. Last but not least, all got enlightened by the thought of reducing the junk where they can contribute something to the environment and themselves.
