Duration/Event Timing: 10 AM- 2PM

Venue of the Event: Department of Zoology

Name of Coordinator(s): Dr. Kaveri Chakrabarty

Name of Convener: Dr. Dhiraj Kumar

Event Description (About 250 Words)

Srishti Chetna - The Zoological Society of Hansraj College, organized its much-awaited departmental fest, "Metamorphosis," on 7th April 2024. The fest aimed to celebrate the spirit of zoology and engage students from various streams in intellectually stimulating competitions. The fest comprised four major events, each designed to test the participants' knowledge, creativity, and analytical skills. These events included:

1. Penorama - Essay-Writing Competition: Participants were tasked with showcasing their writing prowess by composing essays on topics related to zoology and the natural world.
2. Prisma - Photography Competition: This event encouraged participants to capture the beauty and essence of the animal kingdom through their lenses, highlighting their photography skills.
3. Zooquesta - Quiz Competition: A challenging quiz that tested participants' knowledge of zoology, ecology, and related fields, adding an element of excitement and competition to the fest.
4. 8 Mins to Go - Paper Presentation Competition: Participants had the opportunity to present their research and findings on various zoological topics, showcasing their depth of understanding and presentation skills.

The event kicked off with the melodious notes of Saraswati Vandana, invoking the blessings of the goddess of knowledge. This was followed by the ceremonial Lamp Lighting, symbolizing the dispelling of darkness with the light of knowledge. The event was attended by students from Hansraj College and other colleges, making it a truly inclusive and enriching experience for all. The success of "Metamorphosis" has inspired the council members of Srishti Chetna to organize many more such events in the future, continuing their efforts to promote a deeper understanding and appreciation of the animal kingdom.
