Name of the Event number 52: English Literacy Session

Date of the Event: 17 October 2020

We at NSS Hansraj organised an online English Literacy Session on 17 October 2020, for the children of Yamuna Khadar slum. The session was aimed at enlightening the kids on the basics of the English Language. During the session, our volunteers exposed inquisitive minds to the world of the English Language by teaching them basic grammar, short sentences, etc. The kids were fascinated to know new words in English and were encouraged to use them in their daily lives. The interactive session came to a fulfilling end with a short question and answer round where the prompt responses given by students were quite appreciable. The event was indeed invigorating and we thank all the treasured volunteers for invoking the interests of children to dive deeper into the world of words and phrases.
