Cold days, warm hearts and charitable hands when together, bring the sweetest smiles on innocent faces. NSS Hansraj is overwhelmed with the feeling of 'sukoon' as we organized a winter clothes collection drive in the college and were imbursed with loads of love and woollens from students and staff members, who contributed to this noble deed with all their hearts. The flight of happiness and 'sukoon' took off on 26th November, 11:00 P.M. on the streets of Barfkhana, Ghantaghar, Shaktinagar Chowk and Vijay Nagar when the collected clothes, blankets, jackets and other woollen stuff was donated to our brothers and sisters on the streets without proper resources to keep them warm in cold nights. The warmth of the smiles of our peers on the streets filled us with immense energy and satisfaction. The most recognised proverbs that we all have been hearing since childhood that "charity begins at home" and "sharing is caring" were brought to life as we felt immersed in those emotions.
