Event Description (About 250 Words)

Ranneeti 2023 organised by Hult Prize Hansraj, convened a forum for innovation and social transformation across its three distinctive competitions.

Ethiquest, the Corporate Social Challenge, attracted 500 teams for the prelims, symbolising a collective commitment to addressing societal imperatives in the corporate world. Dr. Deeksha Katyal, a renowned professor from Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, presided over the adjudication process for the top 7 teams, infusing her expertise into the finals held on October 20th, 2023.

Ground Reality, the IPL Auction event, saw participation from over 400 teams nationwide for the preliminary round. Top 7 teams were invited on campus on 20th October to compete in the simulation challenge.

Gordian Knot, The Case Competition, witnessed enthusiastic participation from over 600 teams in the prelims. This segment served as a crucible for testing strategic acumen and problem-solving prowess while mirroring real-world dynamics. Mr. Sahil Gupta, Senior Director at Alvarez & Marsal, adjudged the finals held on October 21st, 2023. In summation, 'Ranneeti 2023' emerged as a catalyst for collaboration, innovation, and entrepreneurship. Participants demonstrated steadfast dedication to confront contemporary challenges, underscoring the event's role in nurturing talent and setting societal change in motion.
