Alumni Feedback Report (2023-24)

This report summarizes the feedback received from our alumni through a structured feedback form floated for the academic session 2023-24. The feedback provides insights into the relevance of the curriculum, its alignment with industry needs, and alumni experiences with college facilities. The responses highlight strengths and areas for improvement to enhance the educational experience for students.

Feedback Analysis and Key Findings

Relevance of Syllabus to Employability: Most alumni consider the syllabus relevant to employability, highlighting the effectiveness of the academic structure. A significant 72.5% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with this view, showcasing a strong alignment between the curriculum and job market requirements. However, few expressed the need for further improvements, indicating room for refinement. Keeping this in mind, we intend to float new add-on certificate courses for students.

Alignment with Industry Practices: Alumni opinions on the syllabus's alignment with contemporary industry practices were mixed. While 50% of respondents agreed or strongly agreed with its relevance, 35% remained neutral, and 20% disagreed. This suggests a need for greater synchronization with evolving industry trends.

Development of Entrepreneurial Skills: The curriculum's role in fostering entrepreneurial abilities received moderate feedback, with 55% of alumni acknowledging its impact. However, 32.5% disagreed, signaling an opportunity to enhance entrepreneurial education through more targeted initiatives and practical exposure.

Encouragement of Innovative Thinking: Feedback on the encouragement of innovative thinking was overwhelmingly positive, with 75% of respondents agreeing or strongly agreeing. This highlights a strong area of the academic framework, demonstrating the college's commitment to nurturing creativity and logical reasoning among students.

Inclusion of Skill Enhancement Subjects: Opinions on skill enhancement subjects were more varied, with 55% of respondents expressing satisfaction. However, 27.5% disagreed, emphasizing the need to strengthen this aspect of the curriculum to better equip students with essential skills.

The overall rating of Hansraj College by alumni was highly favorable. Over 82.5% rated the college as either "greatly favorable" (52.5%) or "favorable" (30%). These ratings reflect the positive experiences of alumni and their satisfaction with the college's environment, facilities, and academic quality.
