DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT

On the 16th of August, The Entrepreneurial Cell, Hansraj College and Mahatma Hansraj Centre for Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship (MHCIIE), in collaboration with the Institution Innovation Council (IIC) and Research & Development Centre (RDC), Hansraj College successfully hosted a webinar on 'Accelerators, Incubators, and Entrepreneurship - Opportunities for Students and Faculties - Early Age Entrepreneurs'. The session was designed to offer valuable insights to aspiring entrepreneurs on the critical role of accelerators and incubators in the startup ecosystem.

The webinar featured Mr. Avnish Sharma, an Angel Investor at Cogniphy, renowned for his technical expertise and passion for innovation. His experience in identifying and supporting promising startups made him an ideal speaker for this session.

The webinar commenced with a brief introduction to the topic, providing practical advice on the crucial factors to consider when starting a startup, including market research, building a solid team, and understanding the legal aspects. The speaker highlighted the importance of accelerators and incubators in nurturing early-stage startups. Mr. Avnish Sharma outlined the key differences between accelerators and incubators, explaining their unique roles in the entrepreneurial ecosystem.

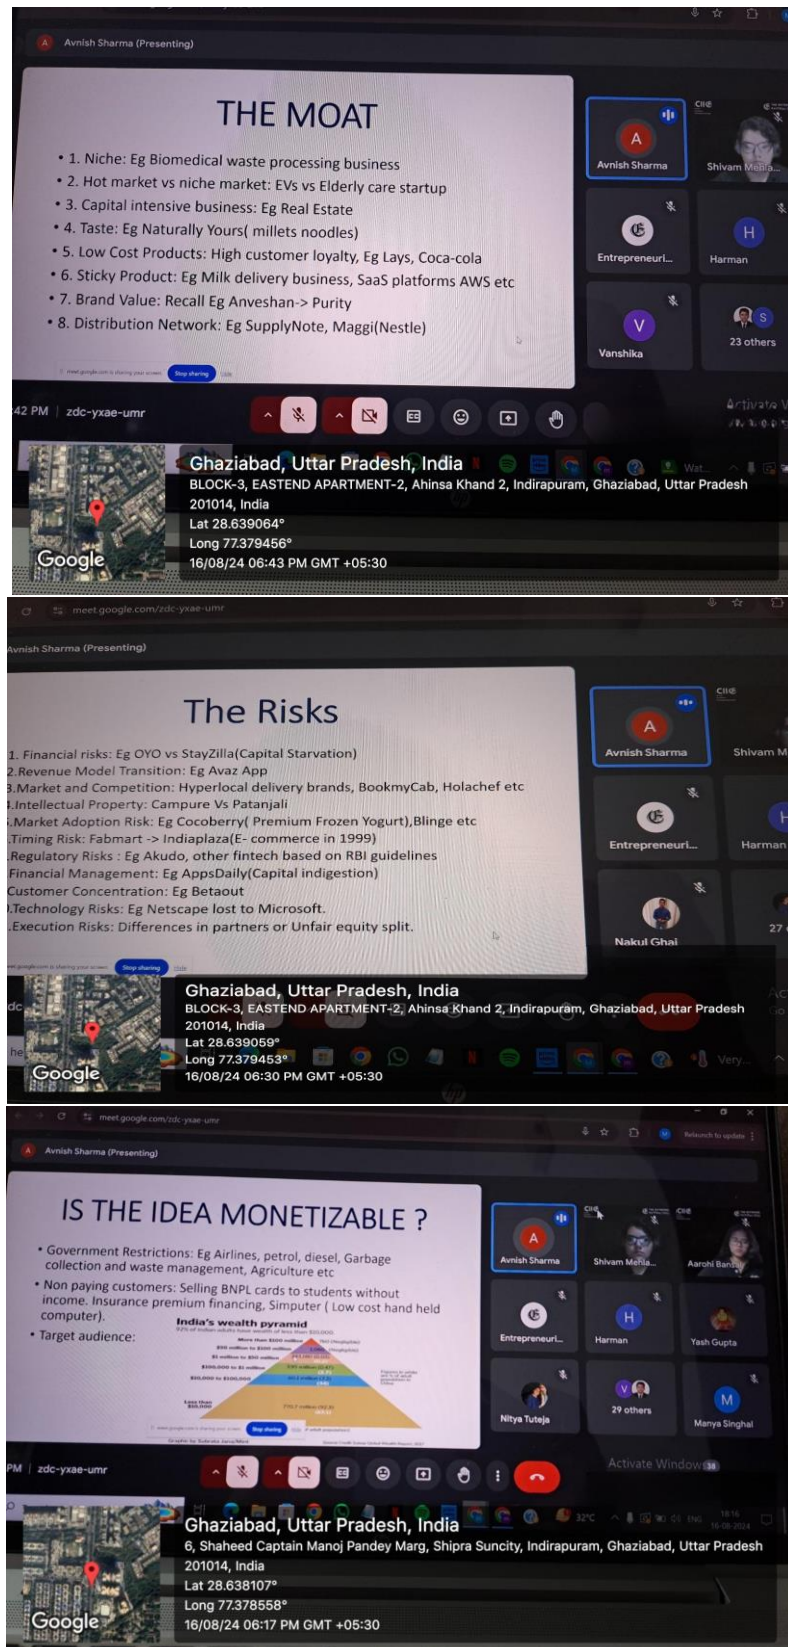

The session concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, where participants had the opportunity to interact directly with Mr. Avnish Sharma. The interactive discussion saw students posing a variety of questions, ranging from specific startup ideas to broader concerns about navigating the entrepreneurial journey.

The webinar was a resounding success, providing valuable insights into the world of accelerators and incubators.
