Event Summary:

The webinar began with a warm welcome address by Mr. Suyash Kumar, event coordinator. He emphasized the importance of intellectual property rights in fostering an environment of innovation and creativity. He explained the role of Institution's Innovation Council in promoting IPR awareness among students and the academic community.

Dr. Ambika, Convener (IIC), added to the opening remarks by stressing the role of intellectual property rights in academic and research environments. She encouraged participants to actively engage with the session to maximize their understanding of IPR.

Dr. Pratibha Tiwari, Innovation coordinator, provided an overview of the council's activities and the significance of celebrating World IPR Day. She highlighted the importance of understanding IPR in today's globalized world and introduced the keynote speaker, Ms. Manju Tripathi.

Keynote Presentation:

Ms. Manju Tripathi delivered an insightful and comprehensive presentation on various aspects of intellectual property rights, which was divided into the following sections:

Introduction to Intellectual Property Rights (IPR):

- Definition and importance of IPR.
- Overview of how IPR stimulates economic growth and innovation.
- Role of IPR in protecting the interests of creators and inventors.

Types of Intellectual Property:

Patents: Explained the concept, requirements for patentability, and the process of obtaining a patent. She provided examples of notable patents that have had significant impacts on industries.

Trademarks: Discussed the importance of trademarks in branding and business identity, along with the legal procedures for registration and enforcement.

Copyrights: Covered the scope of copyright protection, the rights granted to authors and creators, and the duration of copyright protection. She also touched on fair use and digital rights management.

Trade Secrets: Provided insights into what constitutes a trade secret and the measures companies take to protect their proprietary information.

Global and National IPR Frameworks:

Overview of international treaties such as the TRIPS Agreement, WIPO conventions, and their impact on global IPR policies.

Detailed explanation of national IPR laws and regulations in India, highlighting recent developments and case laws.

IPR in the Digital Age:

Challenges of protecting intellectual property in the digital landscape, including issues like digital piracy and unauthorized distribution of digital content.

The role of technology in both protecting and infringing intellectual property rights.

Importance of digital rights management and legal strategies to combat online infringement.

Case Studies and Real-World Examples:

Analysis of landmark IPR cases that have set significant legal precedents.

Examples of successful IPR enforcement and the consequences of IPR violations.

Interactive Q&A Session:

The presentation was followed by an interactive Q&A session, where participants had the opportunity to ask questions and seek clarifications. Ms. Tripathi addressed various queries, providing detailed explanations and further enriching the participants' understanding of the discussed topics. Some of the key questions addressed included:

The process and cost of obtaining a patent in India.

Strategies for protecting digital content from piracy.

The role of IPR in startups and small businesses.

Differences between trademark and copyright protections.

Highlights and Outcomes:

Enhanced Awareness: The webinar effectively raised awareness about the critical importance of intellectual property rights among the participants.

Engaged Participation: The interactive Q&A session allowed participants to engage directly with the speaker, fostering a deeper understanding of IPR issues.

Educational Impact: Attendees gained valuable insights into the practical applications and legal frameworks of intellectual property rights.

Networking Opportunity: The event provided a platform for students, faculty, and professionals to connect and exchange knowledge on IPR-related topics.

Prof. Monika Koul, IPR activity coordinator conclude the session with the "Vote of Thanks". The webinar on "Intellectual Property Rights" was a tremendous success, fulfilling its objective of celebrating World

IPR Day by educating and enlightening the audience on the vital role of intellectual property in innovation and creative protection. The event's success was due to the coordinated efforts of the organizing team and the expert insights provided by Ms. Manju Tripathi.

The Institution's Innovation Council at Hansraj College remains committed to fostering an environment of innovation and creativity by promoting IPR awareness through similar initiatives in the future.
